This award will be presented annually to an individual (or couple) whose volunteerism and outstanding service and dedication have made a significant contribution to the community.

Selection criteria looked for are as follows:

- A person who continually volunteers his or her time, dedication and talents to the town and the citizens of the town to make Red Bud a great place to live, work, play and learn.
- A person who has made a positive difference to the lives of fellow citizens through service in school, church and/or community based organizations.
- Someone who is dedicated to Red Bud and concerned for others. They may serve on service, school, church, or community committees.
- A person who has shown a willingness to work with other Red Bud residents and businesses, who is enthusiastic about the town and its citizens, and who works continually towards the betterment of the community.
- A person with the qualities of honesty and integrity.
- Does not expect anything in return for their actions, i.e. financial compensation, fame, or political notoriety.

In choosing the recipient, regard will be given to the nominee's achievements in the year immediately prior to receiving the award, as well as their past achievements and ongoing contributions to the community. The individual recognized does not have to be a member of the Red Bud Chamber of Commerce or the business community. A nominee need only be nominated once to be considered. The number of nominations received per nominee will bear no weight in their selection.
